Emotional Intelligence (EI) is being increasingly recognized as the most important factor in career success and life satisfaction. Dr. Gabrielle K. Gabrielli teaches that EI is more important than cognitive intelligence (IQ) and helps us manage our lives better as well as the way we relate to other people. It enables us to better determine motivations. We will also practice the CALM model of conflict resolution to help participants more effectively manage emotions in times of conflict. By the end of this session, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Describe characteristics of servant leaders. Assess servant leadership skills. Define emotional intelligence (EI). Explain the five competencies of EI.

You do not set out to look for dirt; you look for the nuggets.” Unfortunately, many so-called leaders value “fool’s gold” and announce rather than inquire, intimidate rather than encourage, threaten rather than nourish, and focus on weaknesses rather than capitalize on strengths. These individuals tend to be what Jean Lipman-Blumen characterizes as “toxic leaders, destructive bosses, and corrupt politicians.” On the other hand, great leaders understand that no leader would be great without the support and help of others. In this session, Dr. Gabrielle K. Gabrielli, Maxwell-certified speaker, trainer, and coach will share important concepts to ensure you get ahead and your people are behind you. You will determine your legacy and develop an action plan to mine leadership gold.

The Tallahassee Leadership Academy is an innovative leadership program designed and developed by Dr. Gabrielle K. Gabrielli of Gabrielle Consulting, Inc. It began in 2013 with a partnership with Tallahassee Community College. The program takes a systematic approach to leadership development by providing rigorous curriculum, assessments, coaching, mentoring, and formative and summative evaluation. In addition to classroom-based instruction, leaders stay connected via technology including a website portal and discussion forum. All sessions are streamed live and recorded for anyone who needs to participate remotely, who must miss, or who wants to review the content. Investment in the yearlong comprehensive Leadership Academy is just $1998 for emerging leaders and $2498 for seasoned leaders. Seasoned leaders receive two additional 90-minute one-on-one coaching sessions with Maxwell certified coach Dr. Gabrielle K. Gabrielli, valued at $1000. For any questions, contact Dr. Gabrielli at gabrielle@gabrielleconsulting.com or 850-321-8222.
